Customer Reviews

Devlin Farmer has practiced family, criminal and poverty law for legal aid organizations in British Columbia and Massachusetts as well as serving for many years as a Staff Lawyer for the Massachusetts Commission on Judicial Conduct. A trained mediator as well as lawyer, he is in private practice and divides his time between British Columbia and Massachusetts.

This book is exactly what I needed when things started to go downhill and I found myself in a legal quagmire. While I did not end up representing myself, having read this book prepared me for the questions that I needed to answer and ask.
