CHRISTOPHER J. BERRY, ESQ. is a VA Accredited Certified Elder Law attorney who has helped countless families plan for and navigate the long-term care legal maze with his unique and innovative legal strategies and holistic approach to elder law and estate planning. He is one of a handful of Certified Elder Law Attorneys in the nation and an Adjunct Professor of Law. He educates lawyers, financial professionals, social workers and families in need on estate planning and elder law.

Informative. Be prepared. No one knows if they will become ill, resulting in a chronic illness. Being prepared is the safest way to protect your lives savings from long-term care expenses Plan ahead!!.

A Must Read!

This is a concise and informative book to help understand options and planning for loved ones. I like the examples to help better understand.

So much good information in one place. A great reference for family and friends.

A fluent read which covers not just legal and financial information, but gives introductions to life altering decision making processes. Too many wait to plan for the difficult stuff, which results in crisis driven, reactionary decision making. This guide lays out all the avenues that must be addressed and planned from everyday life to end of life decisions. Indexed by topic for quick review and future referencing.
