An Alabama native, Cindy Cooper received her bachelor's degree from Auburn University and joined Southern Progress Corporation as a magazine designer in 1979. During her subsequent career within Southern Progress and Oxmoor House, Inc., she led creative teams in the publication of many books and magazines, including Cooking Light, Southern Living, Weight Watchers, and Coastal Living. After joining Hoffman Media, in Birmingham, Alabama, Cindy directed the editorial team of Cooking with Paula Deen before overseeing the launch of The Cottage Journal.

Great little book, with some great recipes. Very small book though.

I got this for my High English Tea library - great recipes.

Loved the book -- bought more for gifts

i was very disappointed in this book and sent it back. There was very little in it. It offered me nothing. Laraine Colucci

Great ideas!

Worth the buy!
