this book explained everything about human services, They really do have examples base on true to life experiences. good book. will highly recommend.

Interesting and helpful

Quick turnaround and mines is the best buy I have heard of out of all my class mates, yay for me - Thanks again!

... for an introductory course in human services management. The examples are truly 'real world' and the "think about it" exercises provide a good base for discussions within the classroom. I highly recommend this book to all entering the field of human services management!

This book has been great in fully explaining what the Human Services field is all about.
