Customer Reviews

"Make your own postcards, collect them in an album, swap them with other people and have fun using up your stash of fabrics, beads, yarns and anything else that can be stitched onto a 4"x6" rectangle of stiffened fabric."Â —MyShelf.com

"These cards are a wonderful way of experimenting with new techniques and learning about different materials and their applications."Â —Fabrications Magazine

"Just in case you're stuck for ideas, there are over 30 different postcard designs and the techniques used to make them are all clearly explained."Â —Stitch Magazine

"Stitch something different and try out new techniques whilst making artistic postcards that are fun to make and lovely to keep."Â —Sewing World

"With contributions from other designers Christa has put together a comprehensive book of ideas and techniques using a wide variety of materials."Â —West Country Embroiderers Guild Newsletter

Christa Rolf is an author,Â a patch worker, and a quilter.

I've seen several postcard books but this one has proved to be the best. Made lots of cards and they are a kick. Have fun.

This book is a great book for getting you get up and go to move along. I even made unrelated projects using the technique shown. No wasted money here. As usual this product was purchased from ...I have had the best service from that anyone would imagine. Go !

I love this book!

I am enjoying the examples that are in this book

I liked!

A good addition to my other postcard books. Will use often.

I love the ideas presented whether you are a beginner or a more advanced sewer, the instructions are clear and projects inspirational many styles here to help learn from great reading and teaching - easy to understand and gives inspiration to me
