The Big Book Of Autocorrect Fails: Hundreds Of Hilarious Howlers!

Synopsis

In theory, autocorrect is a genius feature that saves you from embarrassing errors. In reality, it seems to have a mind of its own, turning your innocent messages into inadvertently scandalous texts that could appall hardened war criminals and make veteran hookers blush. Fortunately, one person's humiliation is another's hilarity, and this big book gathers the very best (or worst, depending on your point of view) failed fixes, presenting them in the popular "bubble" conversation format that captures the progressive confusion, distress, and comedy as the autocorrect goes rogue.

Tim Dedopulos is a veteran of the humor mines. His books include The Best Book of Insults and Putdowns Ever!, How To Pick Up Girls (In Seven Different Languages), and the internationally bestselling Biggest Book of Pub Jokes 2 (all by Carlton).

I bought this book twice!! Once as a gift, and one for myself! Some inappropriate content, but these ARE autocorrects so you never know what you're going to get! I'm still giggling at some of them!

not much. websites offer more with better quality...

Bought as a gift and recipient loved it. Funny book.

Not funny has a lot of inappropriate humor which i don't mind but thats pretty much all it has. Not witty and humorous just dumb.

Made me laugh until I cried!! Hilarious!

This was racier than I expected. Couldn't use it as planned.

I laughed out loud every few pages! I am buying more copies as gifts. There is sexual content, but only when you have sexual terms or double entendres substituted by the autocorrect, like "penis" for "pencil." Most of the mistakes are substituting "crackpot" or "crackpipe" for "crockpot." I am a little old lady and not prone to laughing out loud or enjoying nasty sexual content. Unless you are VERY conservative this book should not offend. And it IS very, very funny!

I had bought this as a stocking stuffer for my adult son but threw it in the trash. Basically, the jokes were few and far between, literally, as there was lots of white space on the pages. And most of the jokes were "R" or "X" rated, and not funny at all. A 13 year old might snicker over this book but it's really trashy, in my opinion. Don't waste your money.
