Fondue Recipes - Fondue Cookbook. Everything From Chocolate To Cheese Fondue

Synopsis

Cheese Fondue began in Switzerland during the 18th century as a way to use aged and stale breads and cheeses. They found that if they heated the cheese and added wines, herbs and garlic, they could dip the stale bread into the flavorful cheese mixture which would soften when dipped. The word fondue comes from the French word, fondu, which means "to melt".

Chocolate Fondue dates to 1950s New York. A Swiss restaurateur named Konrad Egli introduced fondue bourguignonne at his Chalet Suisse restaurant in 1956. Fondue remains one of the last communal dining experiences and one that everyone should try.
