From Night To Knight

Synopsis

Throughout the Bahá'í world in 1953 hearts throbbed with longing and minds quickened with dreams of destinations and destinies in response to the call for pioneers to open territories virgin to the Bahá'í Faith. The spiritual reward, to be accompanied by the correlative title of "Knight of Bahá'u'lláh", would be great. This book is the story of that call and the results. It was in response to this call that I did not only go to the remote Island of Unalaska in the Aleutian chain but was a trip from a material world to a spiritual world.
