Customer Reviews

Really helpful book for the Gianelli book. Gave thorough case briefs for each case and most of them hit all the major points. A few of the case briefs focused on obscure things and missed some of the more important, substantive content, but, overall, this is a quality product.

Of course, this thing is essential for Evidence. Keep in mind though, it is for a previous edition, so there are some cases missing. Also, the summaries seemed to miss some key points in favor of pointing out surface rules. Last, there were a surprising amount of typos.

This case brief book is excellent. It is keyed to my actual case book and does a nice job of explaining each case and the law with brevity. I highly recommend this book.

Breaks down the cases and makes the concepts easy to follow and understand. It provides the rule of law and then gives the explanation from the court. It's a great way to get a quick understanding of the cases.

LIFE SAVER!

This book is very good as a supplement to the regular evidence textbook. At least at my school, we have a heavy reading load in this class, and this book is handy to make sure I'm getting the big picture of the cases. I would highly recommend it to any law student taking this class with this book.
