I went thru the whole book picking and marking the recipes I knew sounded like something I would like. I was impressed with the ease of most of them - and I quickly realized after trying a couple of the recipes that they could be easily tweaked to mimic dishes I have made before - the long way. On the stove top - stirring and trying to avoid burning and sticking to the pot. I love that about the slow cooker - I can leave it alone - don't have to stay home or stay close in order to keep stirring sauces, etc. This is a very basic book that has a lot of tasty dishes. I will continue my way through the book - I make notations right on the recipes if I change or think something should be changed for taste. I really like this book and since I didn't want 10 books, this covers the main food groups, is sectioned by main protein - such as chicken, pork, vegetable, etc. I would recommend this book to anyone but especially someone like me who is new to slow cooking.

I've tried recipes from all the different meat sections and am very pleased with the outcome. If your a busy person these recipes will hit the spot. They are easy to make and you should have most of the ingredients in your cupboard. I think this was one of my best purchases.

Too many beef and pork recipes. I was hoping for some more breakfast or pasta recipes and most of the pasta recipes require cooking the pasta beforehand.

Great wedding gift to go with the slow cooker I purchased as well.

Gave this to our son and daughter in law as a gift. They have not only liked the recipes but the layout of the book. Would definitely give again.

I have only used two recipes and loved them both so much that I bought another cookbook for my daughter in law. I don't use the slow cooker too often but will certainly use this cookbook again.
