Customer Reviews

We used these sturdy, well-cut stencils and washable window art markers to draw on our large windows, trying to prevent birds from diving into the glass. Dover's Snowflake stencils seemed to be effective for that, and looked really pretty during the holiday season. We have also decorated a child's apron & chef's hat with Dover's Emergency Vehicles (firetrucks) and fabric paint and brushes. The 10 Dover stencil books we purchased have all been excellent quality, and used on paper as well as fabric and glass. All of the stencils are on individual pages and measure about 4 to 4 1/2 inches. Great gift for our grandchildren.

The stencils are smaller than I first imagined. However they are good designs. If you can't draw birds, this is a good starting point. They are made of laminated paper. They wil hold up with care.

I love the subject. Used fabric markers which help some on controlling leakage under the stencils. I used a stencil cutting knife on the stencils - which does take some practice.

My grandson loves being able to draw all the birds here. A great idea. I would recommend for ages 4 and up.

the stencils was what i was looking for easy to trace off and easy to paint. i do wood paintings it was what i wad looking for

Nice to work with kids
