Susan Branch was born in Southern California but calls her 1849 home on the Massachusetts island of Martha's Vineyard her "heart magnet" because she was drawn to New England from childhood and loved it before she laid eyes on it. She finally moved there in her early 30's, no longer "able to live without four seasons and white picket fences as everyday architecture." She is the oldest of eight children and inspired by "almost everything." Her hand-lettered and watercolored Heart of the Home series of books are a reflection of the things she loves to celebrate, the home-arts of cooking, gardening, homemaking, family, best friends, entertaining, and the little things that make life sweet. Her newest book, A FINE ROMANCE ~ Falling in Love with the English Countryside, is a diary of her two-month jaunt through the back roads of England in search of her literary and artistic roots. It's filled with the little details, both in words and pictures, that readers have grown to love in Susan's books.

My mom says that she loves this and has been working on filling this out whenever she gets a chance to write. Lots of great topics :)

Very nice quality book! I wish I would have had a book like this for my Grandpa to fill out before he passed on.....Wonderful questions and I know I will appreciate this book for generations to come!!

So excited to give this to my mother in law! I even ordered one for my great grandmother to fill out for me.

My one daughter bought me this for Christmas and I decided to but two more for the other two families with my grandkids. It will take me awhile to complete them but it will leave my grandkids a piece of me.

I bought three of these as Mother's Day gifts. They were just beautiful! The covers were very nice and the pages nice and thick. I gave my Grandfather something similar when I was a little girl and now that he's gone it is one of our family's greatest treasures. Even his children learned things about him they never knew. All of the Grandma's were thrilled with their gifts.

My daughter gave this to my my mother for Christmas...she loved it!!

My grandmother is experiencing some mild dementia, and I'm excited to go through the questions in this book with her and my children to have a legacy for them to remember their wonderful great-grandmother. I know it's not exactly how the book is intended, but I think it'll work. It's really a beautiful book and although not hardbound, it's got a sturdy cover that seems closer to hard than soft (if that makes any sense.)

This is soooooooo cool!!! can not wait to read all my Grandmother writes to fill these pagesLove this!!! Wht a cool and priceless idea!!
