Customer Reviews

I found this book fun to read, but somewhat predictable. I enjoyed the characters and the length of the book. Still, it was not Jack Reacher. I would recommend the book.

Great book that was intriguing throughout as the author developed the story. Pauling and Tallon are great characters that fit in with any book that includes the name Reacher. While Reacher doesn't appear except as a reference you will appreciate the similarity to the style of the stories. If you like the Reacher books I think most people will think similarly of this one. I look forward to more if the same from Dan Ames in the future.

Kept me guessing. There was no appearance of Reacher though....just remembrances. The main character is riveting in her role and her personality is strong.

Dan Ames is OK, but he is not a Lee Child

Interesting premise ,but not quite Teacher level.

I thought it was a Jack Reacher novelThe just mentioned his name several times no Reacher actionSomewhat disappointing

Wasn't a Reacher book.. very short

Good, not great. What jack reacher book did she first appear ?
