Customer Reviews

"many bakers will be tempted by his new collection of impressive yet accessible sweets. Striking desserts such as Jamaican ginger cake with caramelized white chocolate ice cream, lemon meringue pie eclairs, and ultimate chocolate and hazelnut birthday cake will challenge novices, but they're less technically demanding than those in professional titles." - Library Journal

"The recipes

start off very basic, with simple cakes and sponges, but do quickly ramp up with fancier tarts and composed desserts. Some of these become quite complex. But each step is actually pretty easy to follow. If you love desserts, you will adore this fantastic cookbook." - Gretchen Wagner, Manhattan Book Review
