Jill Bryant is an author who specializes in children's nonfiction. When Jill was a child, she especially enjoyed creative play activities. Children's theatre - combined with her travel experiences in Asia - have inspired many of her books. After several years of living abroad, Jill Bryant now lives in Kingston, Ontario.

Great book and interesting history included.

I really love the clear instructions in the Kids can do it book series.Because I Teach at a summer art program and it's nice to have materials that I can use with my students who reange form k to 6th grade. making shadow puppets has everything you'll need to explore the wonderful world of shadow puppets.

Very well- done! Good descriptions!

This is a good starting point for the ideas of elementary puppets, but it does give an origin for the creator to experiment with and master the techniques of these particular puppets.

Not what I expected. Thought it was showing how to make shadow puppets with your hand.

i bought this from on-line chapters for half the price and no shipping or handling i will try the puppets out soon can make others tooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo
