This Ebook is good for nothing. This is a book used in law school where teachers assign page numbers to read, not "location numbers". Why would you not include page numbers in the version. Does not make any sense for the general purpose of this book.

While the book is nice and in good shape, my biggest problem is that the book (in loose leaf form) will not fit in a standard 3 ring binder as the paper is too small (I estimate it is 7x10 paper) and it comes hole punched already, which makes binding it more difficult. Other than that it is fine in my opinion.

Ok, I get a book and where does it say "3rd Edition?" It's under the paper that is encased in the shrink wrap which has a sticker that states:"NO RETURN IF OPENED" Not to mention at 240 bucks we want to be sure to confirm the edition before opening. So how can this be done?
