I'm satisfied.Thank you.

I love the Christmas decorations in America, and think that Williamsburg leads the way in traditional and tasteful garlands etc.I was very pleased to buy this book in Williamsburg in April, and bought the copy for a friend in the UK.

Colonial Williamsburg Decorates for Christmas: step by step illustrated.really great instructions. making the apple tree for our Christmas table and apple fan for our door. thank you.

I saw this book while in Williamsburg and wanted it so when Christmas comes I can get inspired to perhaps make some of the beautiful decorations. The book is colorful with a lot of good ideas and pictures.

Not informative enough...actually was disappointed in book. It really didn't give much in the way of good ideas for decorating for Christmas.I would not buy again.

I have loved this book, which has very clear and simple instructions on how to make wreaths, swags, and other arrangements made with the greenery in your backyard, plus various combinations of fruit. Easy and beautiful!

This is a very thorough book on this style of decorating. The projects are well thought out. The instructions are easy to follow. I bought it for my personal resource library.

I love this book! The directions and how-to illustrations are concise and easy to follow for such beautiful decorations. I would recommend it to anyone who is willing to spend a little time on something special.
