Good Housekeeping magazine is an American icon of consumer protection and quality assurance. Each issue reaches 24 million readers and, with 15 editions published worldwide, it is an internationally recognized brand.

I took this book home from the library and turned around and ordered a copy for my collection! I made the Maple-ginger-glazed carrots and they were a big hit at Thanksgiving and Christmas. I also made the Potato Gratin with Gruyere which was delicious, too. This might have Christmas in the title but it has recipes for all year round.

An attractive book to put in your recipe/ book holder in your kitchen!! I was a bit disappointed in the recipes. I have found that the Southern Living yearly cookbook has wonderful, different recipes that are great for holidays when something really wonderful & unexpected is what you are looking for! I guess that's what I was expecting in this book. A bit of a disappointment, but still a very nice book. A keeper!

I assumed that this cookbook was too old fashioned for my family but I was wrong! The many make ahead (or partially make ahead) are great for cooks who are juggling lots of dishes for a large meal. The recipes have clearly been well tested because they all came out beautifully.

The recipes were recipes I would not make... The stories and decorating tips were more enjoyable to me. I will give this to a friend who loves to cook "different" meals. The book was nicely done, heavy, and could be appropriate for an advanced cook,

I purchased this book after the holidays this year and am already looking forward to next. I have made a few of the entree recipes, they were easy to follow and delicious. The pictures are wonderful and the variety is a family friendly mix. Anyone could use this book any time of the year.

I bought four of these and gave them to 3 of my good friends. We are taking turns making dishes out of the book. Great Pictures and easy directions.

I use this all the time.

I was very excited to receive this book. I had looked at it on line for over a year. Then my excitement turned to disappointment. I was not impressed with the recipes and ideas for decorating.
